

Join Sisters in Crime on October 15, 2016 to welcome a phenomenal Paranormal Panel moderated by PARANORMAL CONNECTION TV producer/host, Dänna Wilberg. Each panelist will share their expertise, stimulating creative character profile ideas and plotlines for your next story!

Dänna Wilberg: Author/Producer/Host

Dänna Wilberg is a multiple award winning short film maker who produces and hosts two local TV programs in Sacramento, California. PARANORMAL CONNECTION and STORY CONNECTION. Dänna has been producing TV shows and writing romantic suspense/paranormal fiction for over ten years. Her Grace Simms trilogy, "The Red Chair" and "The Grey Door" were published in 2014, 2015. "The Black Dress" will be released in Nov. 2015. Dänna is currently working on a paranormal series featuring intuitive investigator, Suzanne Cash. <http://www.dannawilberg.com>

Linda Schooler: Psychic

Linda Schooler has been a professional psychic for over 20 years. Inspired early on in her life by the Edgar Cayce readings and her own inherent ability to read people, Linda feels she came into this life to be a psychic and to help people. Linda is a positive force in this world. She has been on several major radio and television stations in Sacramento, and currently has her own show on blog talk radio.

Linda Potter: Past Life Regressionist

Linda Potter is a hypnotist specializing in Past-Life Regression and Guided Imagery Meditation. With over twenty years of experience she brings self-healing techniques with a unique perspective. Linda is past Host of The Open Door Radio Show on www.sceptretradiationetwork.com and past Co-Host of Paranormal Insights Television Show. She has been consulted for her expertise regarding past-life regression by TBS television and continues as a guest on both television and radio. She is the co-author of a book titled "The Miracle of Self-Healing: The Recipe to Heal Phobias and Health Issues from Past Lives."

Barbara Ybarra: Astrologer

Barbara is a graduate of the Noel Tyl Master's Course in Astrology and has been interested in metaphysics and the occult since childhood. She lives with her husband Guadalupe and they have 3 grown children and 3 little grandchildren. Her favorite genre of crime novel is one that involves esoteric mysteries such as The DiVinci Code, and her favorite suspense character is Dean Koontz' Odd Thomas. In the future she would like to see greater implementation of astrological lore in creative writing.

Andrea Driver: Psychic

Andrea knew she had the ability to communicate with Spirit at an early age. Out of fear of acceptance, she kept her ability hidden for years. In 2012, Andrea began a personal journey of awakening and committed to living a more authentic life. This has resulted in the full expression of innate spiritual sensibilities and opened of some new ones.

Andrea has earned certifications as a Spiritual Life Coach, Mediation Coach, NLP Practitioner, Life Force Energy Healer and more. These certifications help Andrea provide clients with a variety of tools and a language for the amazingly beautiful spiritual messages that are available for us all.

Over time, Andrea became more comfortable experiencing and openly sharing her spiritual mediation abilities. Today, Andrea Dawn is actively using all of her intuitive abilities in tandem with her certifications to deliver powerful spiritual messages that delight her clients.

Meetings are held at the Rancho Cordova Library at 1:00 p.m.

9845 Folsom Blvd.

No-host lunch prior to meetings at Perko's at 11:30 a.m.

9647 Micron Ave.